RED, WHITE and BLACK: Minorities in America

Prompted by many inquiries and requests from librarians, teachers and others during the past few years, this collection of about 600 paperback books from 70 or more publishers has been prepared for display as part of The Combined Paperback Exhibit at the American Library Association Conference in Atlantic City, June 22-26, 1969.

There are undoubtedly gaps in this first selection of paperback titles. Many new titles are planned for publication in the Fall. It is expected that, if there is a demand for such a collection for display on an annual or a continuing basis, arrangements may be made to provide a "permanent" or "traveling" exhibit to meet the growing demand.

A SELECTED LIST OF BIBLIOGRAPHIES

There are literally thousands of lists of books prepared for general or limited distribution by associations of teachers or librarians, by federal and state agencies, by organizations concerned with intergroup relations, by general publishers and university presses, by public libraries, university libraries, and school systems, by centers for urban education, and others. Many lists appear in special articles or issues of a variety of periodicals. There are, also, bibliographies in some of the books listed in the main body of this catalog.

A selection of only a few of these bibliographies follows. Information will be welcome about new and important additions for possible future revisions of this list. (Note: the display does not include this section of Bibliographies).

Booklists Prepared by Libraries and Schools

Except where a price is shown for a library (or school) booklist, it should be understood that such lists are prepared for use and distribution in the library's own community and usually are not available for general distribution. Only a sampling of some of these lists is included here; there are, no doubt, hundreds more prepared by libraries large and small. Most of those listed are included to indicate their wide range and variety.

Booklists Prepared by Booksellers and Publishers

An increasing number of publishers and booksellers are issuing special lists of books. Among some of the lists which we have seen recently are the following:

American University Press Books on Negro Life and History, ALA Conference 1969 Exhibit. Association of American University Presses, One Park Ave., New York 10016

Negro Universities Press and New American Library will publish new series of paperback reprints in the area of Afro-Americana, beginning in September 1969. For a copy of the first list of 25 titles, write to the Press at 211 East 43 Street, New York, 10017 or to NAL.

A Supplemental Listing of Titles Relating to Afro-American Interests Appearing in the 1969 Edition of "The Paperback Goes to School." BIPAD, 122 E. 31 St., New York 10017 1969

Miscellaneous Notes. The U.S. Office of Education has available a free, eight-page reprint, Libraries That Care, with three articles on innovative library services for innercity residents in six major cities. The articles by Carolyn Ruffin originally appeared in The Christian Science Monitor. Write: Division of Library Programs, Bureau of Adult, Vocational, and Library Programs, USOE, Washington, D.C. 20202 Most libraries probably have the lists of publications not only of the U.S. Office of Education but also of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and other Federal agencies, such as the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, etc.

In addition to a great variety of periodicals, which may frequently include appropriate listings, we suggest checking Education Index, Readers Guide to Periodical Literature, and Library Literature.

Also there are pertinent general publications (not necessarily containing bibliographies) of associations and agencies, such as:

The Poor, the School, and the PTA; Guidelines for PTA's in Low-Income Communities. National Congress of Parents and Teachers, 700 North Rush St., Chicago 60611 1969

What Any White Woman Can Do in the New Movement for Social Change. League of Women Voters, 1200 17th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036 15¢ Quantity prices

THE FUTURE

"Those who have faith in the viability of our great cities will find a helpful partner in the public library. Our resources, both human and material, can supplement and support anti-poverty activities, the work of the Urban Coalition, model cities programs and urban renewal and development projects. Library materials can and should be used to promote racial pride and ethnic identity. But they must also be used to develop interracial understanding, community stability and a true sense of the oneness of mankind.

"The warnings have been eloquent and unmistakable. Our institutions must be responsive to the needs of the people. The increasing polarization of society between the whites and the blacks, separate and unequal, must be dissolved. The educationally dispossessed, the economically disenfranchised, must share with all a sense of personal worth, of human dignity and the opportunity to seek individual self-fulfillment. This is the promise held out by the American dream and each of us has a terribly high stake in making that promise come true."
